SAVINGS ACCOUNT ACCOUNT AGREEMENT & DISCLOSURE

DEFINITIONS. "You," "your," and "account owner" refer to the Depositor whether or not there are one or more Depositors named on the account, and "we," "our," and "us" refer to the Financial Institution.

GENERAL AGREEMENT. You understand that the following Account Agreement ("Agreement") governs your Savings account with us, along with any other documents applicable to your account, including our Funds Availability Policy, Electronic Fund Transfer Agreement and Truth In Savings Account Disclosure ("Disclosures"), all of which are incorporated by reference. You would also have received a copy of our Privacy Policy, if a copy was not previously provided to you. You understand that your account is also governed by applicable law. The Disclosures provided a Schedule of Fees and Charges applicable to the account, the interest rate and applicable Annual Percentage Yield, minimum balance requirements, compounding and crediting of interest, and other pertinent information related to the account. The information found in the Disclosures may change from time to time. If the fees, charges, minimum balance requirements, or other items change in a manner that would adversely affect you, we will provide you with written notice 30 days prior to the change.

YOUR CHOICE OF ACCOUNT. You have instructed us as to the title and type of the account that you have chosen. You acknowledge that it is your sole responsibility to determine the full legal effect of opening and maintaining the type of account you have chosen. We have not set forth all laws that may impact your chosen account. For example, there are conditions that may need to be satisfied before transferring accounts due to death or other events as well as reductions to an account required or permitted by law. You must determine whether the account you select is appropriate for your current and future needs. Except as required by law, we assume no legal responsibility to inform you as to the effect of your account choice on your legal interests.

JOINT WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP ACCOUNT. The joint tenants (account owners) agree that all funds deposited now or in the future in this account shall be held as joint tenants with right of survivorship and not as tenants in common. Upon the death of a joint tenant, the account balance shall become the property of the surviving joint tenant(s). If there is more than one surviving joint tenant, then the account shall continue to be held as a joint account with right of survivorship. When there is only one surviving joint tenant, the account shall be treated as an individual account.

MULTIPLE ACCOUNT OWNERS. If there is more than one account owner for your account, all deposits are the property of the person(s) indicated on the account. We may release all or any part of the amount in the account to honor checks, withdrawals, orders or requests from any person named on this account. However, the number of signatures on the Account Information form must be met. Any person named on the account is liable for the amount of any overdraft regardless of whether he or she signed the item or benefited from the proceeds of the item. Upon receiving written notice from any person named on the account, we may freeze the account. The account may be frozen until we receive written notice, signed by all parties named in the account, as to the disposition of funds. We may also freeze the account upon receipt of notice of the death or incapacity of an account owner until we have received all necessary documentation to establish to whom payment should be made. We may use the funds to satisfy a debt or judgment of any person named on this account if ordered to do so by a court of law.

POWER OF ATTORNEY. If you wish to name another person to act as your attorney in fact or agent in connection with your account, we must approve the form of appointment.

ACCESS LIMITATIONS. You understand that we will not allow more preauthorized transfers than the maximum number specified in the Disclosures. A preauthorized transfer is a transfer of funds from this account to make payment to a third party by means of a preauthorized or telephone agreement, order or instruction. Federal regulations require compliance with these restrictions. We may be required to close your account, take away your ability to transfer funds, or convert the account to a checking or other transaction account if these restrictions are violated.

DEPOSITS. Deposits may be made in person, by mail, or in another form and manner acceptable to us. We are not responsible for transactions mailed until we actually receive and record them. We may in our sole discretion refuse to accept particular instruments as a deposit to your account. Cash deposits are credited to your account according to this Agreement. Other items you deposit are handled by us according to our usual collection practices. If an item you deposit is returned unpaid, we will debit your account and adjust any interest earned. You are liable to us for the amount of any check you deposit to your account that is returned unpaid and all costs and expenses related to the collection of all or Disclosures.

COLLECTION OF DEPOSITED ITEMS. In receiving items for deposit or collection, we act only as your agent and assume no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. All items are credited subject to final settlement in cash or credits. We shall have the right to forward items to correspondents including all Federal Reserve Banks, and we shall not be liable for default or neglect of said correspondents for loss in transit, nor shall any correspondent be liable except for its own negligence. You specifically authorize us or our correspondents to utilize Federal Reserve Banks to handle such items in accordance with provisions of Regulation J (12 CFR Part 210), as revised or amended from time to time by the Federal Reserve Board. In the event we are subject to local clearinghouse rules, you specifically authorize us to handle such items in accordance with the rules and regulations of the clearinghouse. If we permit you to withdraw funds from your account before final settlement has been made for any deposited item, and final settlement is not made, we have the right to charge your account or obtain a refund from you. In addition, we may charge back any deposited item at any time before final settlement for whatever reason. We shall not be liable for any damages resulting from the exercise of these rights. Except as may be attributable to our lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care, we will not be liable for dishonor resulting from any reversal of credit, return of deposited items or for any damages resulting from any of those actions.

STATEMENTS. If your account is a statement account, we will provide you with a periodic statement showing the account activity. The last address you supply us in writing will be deemed the proper address for mailing this statement to you. The account holder who receives this statement is the agent for his/her co-account holder(s) for purposes of receiving the statement and items. You must exercise reasonable care in reviewing your statement and reasonable promptness in notifying us of any discrepancies, such as alterations or forged or unauthorized signatures, even if by the same wrongdoer. Reasonable promptness will not exist if you fail to notify us within 30 days after we mail or otherwise make the statement available to you. If you fail to notify us of any discrepancies, with reasonable promptness, your right to assert such discrepancies will be barred or limited to the extent permitted by law. Additionally, you agree that we will not be liable for discrepancies reported to us after one year after we mail or otherwise make the statement or items available to you, even if we failed to exercise ordinary care. However, if the discrepancy is the result of an electronic fund transfer, the provisions of the Disclosures will control its resolution. If you do not receive a statement from us because you have failed to claim it or have supplied us with an incorrect address, we may stop sending your statements until you specifically make written request that we resume sending your statements and you supply us with a proper address.

PASSBOOKS. If your account is a passbook account and you wish to make a withdrawal without your passbook, we can refuse to allow the withdrawal. If your passbook is lost or stolen, you will immediately notify us in writing.

ACH AND WIRE TRANSFERS. This Agreement is subject to Article 4A of the Uniform Commercial Code - Funds Transfers as adopted in the state of Kansas. If you send or receive a wire transfer, you agree that Fedwire® Funds Service may be used. Federal Reserve Board Regulation J is the law that covers transactions made over Fedwire® Funds Service. When you originate a funds transfer for which Fedwire® Funds Service is used, and you identify by name and number a beneficiary financial institution, an intermediary financial institution or a beneficiary, we and every receiving or beneficiary institution may rely on the identifying number to make payment. We may rely on the number even if it identifies a financial institution, person or account other than the one named. If you are a party to an Automated Clearing House ("ACH") entry, you agree to be bound by the rules and regulations of the National Automated Clearing House Association ("NACHA") Operating Rules, the Rules of any local ACH, and the Rules of any other system through which the entry is made.

PROVISIONAL PAYMENT. Credit we give you with respect to an ACH credit entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for that entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive final settlement, you agree that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with the entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e., the originator of the entry) shall not be deemed to have paid you in the amount of such entry.

NOTICE OF RECEIPT. Under the operating rules of NACHA, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, we are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item and we will not do so. However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements we provide to you.

CHOICE OF LAW. We may accept on your behalf payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more ACHs and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the state where this account is opened as provided by the operating rules of NACHA, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR BACK OF CHECK. All negotiable paper ("checks") presented for deposit must be in a format that can be processed and we may refuse to accept any check that does not meet this requirement. All endorsements on the reverse side of any check deposited into your account must be placed on the left side of the check when looking at it from the front, and the endorsements must be placed so as not to go beyond an area located 1-2 inches from the left edge of the check when looking at it from the front. It is your responsibility to ensure that these requirements are met and you are responsible for any loss incurred by us for failure of an endorsement to meet this requirement.

STOP PAYMENTS. If you request a stop payment on a preauthorized transfer, such stop payment will be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Disclosures provided to you at the time you opened the account or any time thereafter. A stop payment may be placed on either a one-time preauthorized transfer or on recurring periodic transfers. We must receive such stop payment, orally or in writing, at least three business days before a scheduled debit.

DEATH OR INCOMPETENCY. Neither your death nor a legal adjudication of incompetence revokes our authority to accept, or collect items until we know of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and have a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

NON-SUFFICIENT FUNDS. If your account lacks sufficient available funds to pay a preauthorized transfer or other debit activity ("item") presented for payment, we may return such item for non-sufficient funds and charge you a fee as provided in the Disclosures or Fee Schedule. If we honor the item, subject to our Overdraft Policy, if any, you agree to reimburse us immediately for the amount of the item for which there are non-sufficient funds, plus any fee as provided in the Disclosures or Fee Schedule. Any funds subsequently deposited into the account may be used for reimbursement. These funds can be any type of deposit, including but not limited to, Social Security and other government deposits.

TRANSFERS AND ASSIGNMENTS. You cannot assign or transfer any interest in your account unless we agree in writing.

AUTHORIZED SIGNATURES. Your signature on the Account Information form is your authorized signature. For withdrawal and for other purposes relating to any account you have with us, we are authorized to recognize your signature, but we will not be liable to you for refusing to honor signed instructions if we believe in good faith that the signature appearing on such instructions is not genuine. When your account is established, you may require more than one authorized signature on a withdrawal request against your account. In the absence of a designation on the Account Information form, we may honor any withdrawal request against the account so long as it contains at least one authorized signature.

PAYMENT OF INTEREST. Interest will be calculated and paid in accordance with the Disclosures provided to you at the time you opened the account.

FEES, SERVICE CHARGES AND BALANCE REQUIREMENTS. You agree to pay us and are responsible for any fees, charges or balance/deposit requirements as provided in the Disclosures provided to you at the time you opened the account. Fees, charges and balance requirements may change from time to time.

WITHDRAWAL NOTICE REQUIREMENTS. We have the right to require seven days prior written notice from you of your intent to withdraw any funds from your account. Withdrawals may be subject to a service charge.

SET-OFFS AND SECURITY INTEREST. If you ever owe us money as a borrower, guarantor or otherwise, and it becomes due, we have the right under the law (called "set-off") and under this Agreement (by which you grant us a security interest in your deposit account and any other accounts held by you) to use your account funds to pay the debt, where permitted by law. If your account is held jointly, that is, if there is more than one account owner, we may offset funds for the debt of anyone of the joint owners. Similarly, we may also set-off funds from the individual accounts of anyone of the joint owners to satisfy obligations or debts in the joint account. The security interest granted by this Agreement is consensual and is in addition to our right of set-off.

DORMANT ACCOUNTS. You understand that if your account is dormant or inactive, your account if interest-earning will continue to earn interest and we may charge fees specified in the Disclosures, to the extent permitted by the law. You agree that we are relieved of all responsibility if your account balance is escheated (that is, turned over to the state) in accordance with state law.

ATTORNEY FEES AND EXPENSES. You agree to be liable to us for any loss, costs or expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees to the extent permitted by law, that we incur as a result of any dispute involving your account, and you authorize us to deduct any such loss, costs or expense from your account without prior notice to you. This obligation includes disputes between yourself and us involving the account and situations where we become involved in disputes between you and an authorized signer, another joint owner, or a third party claiming an interest in the account. It also includes situations where you, an authorized signer, another joint owner, or a third party takes action with respect to the account that causes us, in good faith, to seek the advice of counsel, whether or not we actually become involved in a dispute.

LEGAL PROCESS AGAINST ACCOUNT. You agree to be responsible for, to reimburse us, and/or have your account charged for any expenses or reasonable attorney fees we incur due to an attachment, garnishment, levy or subpoena of records of your account. Any garnishment or other levy against your account is subject to our right of set-off and security interest. We may restrict the use of your account if it is involved in any legal proceeding.

CLOSING ACCOUNT. We may close the account at any time, with or without cause, after sending you notice as required by the law. Such a termination will not release you from any fees or other obligations incurred before the termination. We will send a check for the balance in our possession to which you are entitled.

OUR WAIVER OF RIGHTS. You understand and agree that no delay or failure on our part to exercise any right, remedy, power or privilege available to us under this Agreement shall affect or preclude our future exercise of that right, remedy, power or privilege.

YOUR WAIVER OF NOTICE. By signing the signature card/Account Information form, you waive any notice of non-payment, dishonor or protest regarding any items credited to your deposit account. For example, if a check that you deposited is dishonored and returned to us, we are not required to notify you of the dishonor.

NOTICE. You are responsible for notifying us of any address or name changes, death of an account holder and other information affecting your account. Notices shall be in writing, signed by the account owner(s) and with sufficient information to allow us to identify the account. Notice sent by you to us is not effective until we have received it and have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon it. Written notice sent by us to you is effective when mailed to the last address supplied to us in writing.

AMENDMENTS AND ALTERATIONS. You agree that the terms and conditions governing your account may be amended by us from time to time. We will notify you of amendments as required by applicable law. Your continued use of the account evidences your agreement to any amendments. Notices will be sent to the most recent address shown on the account records. Only one notice will be given in the case of joint account holders.

EFFECTIVE APPLICABLE LAWS AND REGULATIONS. You understand that this Agreement is governed by the laws of Kansas, except to the extent that federal law is controlling. Changes in these laws and regulations may modify the terms and conditions of your account(s). We do not have to notify you of these changes, unless required to do so by law. If any of the terms of this Agreement come into conflict with the applicable law and are declared to be invalid or unenforceable, those terms will be nullified to the extent that they are inconsistent with the law and the applicable law will govern. However, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

This account consists of a checking sub account and a savings sub account. The Bank may periodically transfer funds between these two sub accounts. If your Account is a Plan on which interest is paid, your interest calculation will remain the same. Otherwise, the savings sub account will be non interest bearing. The saving sub account will be governed by the rules governing our other savings accounts. This process will not affect your available balance, the interest you may earn, FDIC insurance protection, or your monthly statement.
